

Best Exhibitions To Look Forward to in 2023

Twenty-two best art exhibitions in the Kanto area and beyond to look forward to in 2023.

Last Updated: Jan 21, 2023 | Yugo Asami (Editorial Intern)

Contemporary Art Gallery, Art Tower Mito "Caring: Motherhood" poster

Caring: Motherhood (Contemporary Art Gallery, Art Tower Mito)

Care is an essential element of our society. Featuring a diverse range of works, from expressions born out of second-wave feminism to the reading of private childcare diaries, this exhibition will seek the possibilities of empowerment through works of contemporary artists and the placemaking that strengthens the connection between the public and care. Participating artists are Ryoko Aoki, AHA! [Archive for Human Activities], Miyako Ishiuchi, Mako Idemitsu, Yui Usui, Ragnar Kjartansson, Kento Nito, Maria Farrar, Young-In Hong, Mei Homma, Martha Rosler, Mierle Laderman Ukeles, and Yun Suknam.

Venue: Contemporary Art Gallery, Art Tower Mito

Schedule: February 18 - May 7