3. Jessica Stockholder “The Guests All Crowded Into the Dining Room” at Mitchell-Innes & Nash

The artist is presenting “a large-scale site-responsive installation” as well as repurposed works of found materials using tire scraps, rusty hinges, roofing tile, and other such objects ripe for reinvention for her third show at the gallery. The installation, which is a winding yellow-and-white viewing platform, puts gallery-goers at eye level in order to see a selection of elevated drawings “with a splash of color” in closer detail.

Location: 534 West 26th Street

Price: Free

Time: Thursday, 6:00–8:00 p.m.
