

Here Is Every Single New York Gallery Show That You Need to (Somehow) See This September

There's no shortage of great art in New York this fall.

Sarah Cascone, September 7, 2017

The editors at artnet News searched New York City high and low for the most exciting, bizarre, and thought-provoking gallery exhibitions this fall. From Chelsea to the Lower East Side, we've got you covered.

“Amanda Ross-Ho: My Pen Is Huge.” Courtesy of Mitchell-Innes & Nash.

23. “Amanda Ross-Ho: My Pen Is Huge” at Mitchell-Innes & Nash

Los Angeles-based artist Amanda Ross-Ho turned Mitchell-Innes & Nash into her studio for the month of August, working in the gallery to create new paintings and sculptures for her upcoming exhibition. The central motif will be the clock, featured in 12 large-scale paintings made last month based on drawings produced over the past year—compressing a year’s worth of work into just 31 days.

534 West 26th Street, September 7–October 14, 2017; opening reception, 6 p.m.–8 p.m.