21 Gallery Shows You Won't Want to Miss in New York This Fall, From Amy Sherald's Star Turn to a Historic Cuban Artist's US Debut

Here's a taste of what's opening this season in the Big Apple.

Caroline Goldstein & Sarah Cascone, September 3, 2019

“Pope.L, Jonathan Lyndon Chase, Cheyenne Julien, & Tschabalala Self: Embodiment” at Mitchell-Innes & Nash
September 12–October 26

This group show of all-stars from the gallery roster explores the concept of the body, how it is envisioned, lived, and depicted through two-dimensional art. Each of these artists approach the body in a distinct way, underscoring the fundamental sameness of every body.

Mitchell-Innes & Nash is located at 534 West 26th Street.
