9. "Julian Stanczak: Seriality" at Mitchell-Innes and Nash, New York

In the gallery's third exhibition on the late Op Art innovator Julian Stanczak, Mitchell-Innes and Nash has honed in on 10 large-scale, multi-panel paintings that capture the artist's proclivity for working in series. A rare approach among other standard-bearers of the movement, seriality reflects how Stanczak's entrancing abstractions were grounded in observation of natural phenomena, such as the way light gradates from dawn to dusk or autumn shifts to spring. This connection takes the show's sensual pleasures beyond the realm of good vibes and grounds them in something more knowable, tangible, and memorable.

Location: Mitchell-Innes and Nash, 534 West 26th Street, New York

Price: Free

Time: Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–6 p.m.
